Dear Ass. Prof. Ankit Garg!

Moscow State University of Civil Engineering invites you to participate in the International Scientific and Practical Symposium «The Future of the Construction industry: Challenges and Development Prospects», which will take place in Moscow on September 18-22, 2023.

Symposium aims to support creation of leading scientific knowledge and innovations and to broaden educational partnerships and inter-university cooperation.

Among the participants of the Symposium are national and international academia alongside with representatives of the Government of the Russian Federation, relevant ministries and industry organizations.

Symposium will be held in-person in Russian and English languages with translation provided.

The best reports from the Symposium will be published in Scopus indexed journals.

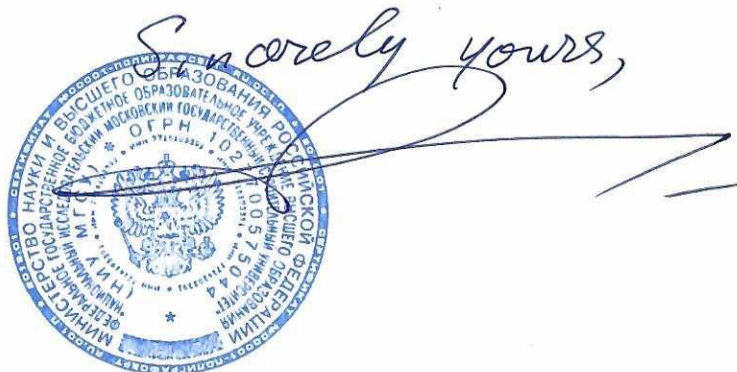

Cultural program is planned for the participants of the Symposium.

It will be our pleasure to cover your flight and accommodation expenses and your registration fee.

More information about the Symposium and list of scientific sections and roundtables is available at <https://mgsu-conference.org/fci-2023>.

Looking forward to meeting you in Moscow!

Rector

Sincerely yours,

Pavel Akimov
