Invitation Letter

My Alma Mater, Shantou University,

2024 marks the 45th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relationships between People's Republic of China and the United States. In order to promote exchanges in cultures between the two countries, Chinese University Alumni Association Alliance of Southern California (CUAAASC) will open SONG ZHUMEI PICNIC PARTY in Los Angeles, California on October 12, 2024. As a member of CUAAASC, Shantou University Southern California Alumni Association (STUSCAA) will host the alliance's traditional project.

CUAAASC is a non-profit public welfare organization jointly established by the alumni associations of Peking University, Tsinghua University and Shanghai Jiao-Tong University in October 2016. CUAAASC is a federation of alumni associations of Chinese universities in Southern California. It is a communication platform for alumni of various Chinese universities. CUAAASC currently has 75 member alumni associations, including tens of thousands of alumni from all walks of life living in Southern California, which are a gathering of talents and elites. Shantou University Southern California Alumni Association (STUSCAA) is honored to have won the right to host the event after competing with alumni associations from Peking University, Tsinghua University, Fudan University, University of Science and Technology of China, Zhejiang University, and Zhongshan University. To do a good job in hosting the event and expand Shantou University's overseas influence, STUSCAA sincerely invites the alma mater to send leaders and representatives Vice President Yu Hong, Director of External Liaison Office Dr. Jian Gao, Director of International Office and Dean of School of International Education. Miss Lin Yang to participate in this event on Oct 12, 2024. In addition, they will attend the forum with alumnus of Shantou University North American Alumni Association and STUCAA to guide the work of alumni association on Oct 11, 2024. At Oct 13, 2024, the leaders and representations of the alma mater will meet president of CUAAASC to discuss exchanges and cooperation between alumni associations of American universities, and visit University of Southern California during Oct 13, 2024. Please see the attached schedule for this visit.
