Dear Dr An Ning

52nd Annual International Conference of the Joseph Conrad Society
Sapienza University, Rome, Italy, 2 - 4 July 2025

The Committee of the Joseph Conrad Society (U.K.) is pleased to accept your proposal, and to invite you to present your paper, 'Translation and the Unfettered: An Exploration of the First Principles of Translation Based on Personal Praxis', at our Fifty-Second Annual International Conference. Papers are scheduled to be of 20 – 25 minutes in length, and will be placed in a panel of papers upon compatible topics.

All details of the conference may be found on the website of the UK Joseph Conrad Society (josephconradsociety.org), and full details of the programme and schedule of speakers will be posted as these become available. Details of accommodation costs and arrangements can be found on the link from the Annual Conference page.

We very much look forward to your participation in the conference. We trust our invitation will enable you to meet international scholars to promote academic relations in a cordial atmosphere, and also give you the opportunity to introduce to us Chinese perspectives on the translation and study of Conrad, a most important new area of research and international co-operation.

We further understand that you will need to apply for a visa for public affairs. We confirm that if you should violate Italian immigration laws, the Joseph Conrad Society (UK) will bear the corresponding criminal liability. In case this is necessary for identity purposes, I attach a copy of my Italian passport.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Riccardo Capoferro
