Invitation to the 14th Convention of the International Association for Ethical Literacy Criticism (IAELC)

Dear Haiying Cheng (Shantou University),

It is our pleasure to cordially invite you to the 14th Convention of the International Association for Ethical Literacy Criticism (IAELC), which will take place at Halla Convention Center, Halla University in Jeju, South Korea, from July 24 (Thursday) to July 25 (Friday), 2025.

Under the theme of “Ethical Literary Criticism in the Age of Artificial Intelligence,” this year’s conference will examine how AI is reshaping literary creation and criticism, as well as the evolving role of ethical judgment within AI-driven literary analysis. Scholars and practitioners from around the world will gather to explore the impact of AI technologies, discuss new perspectives on ethics in literature, and contribute to shaping the future of literary interpretation.

We welcome your participation in this significant dialogue and encourage you to join us in exchanging insights on the interplay between ethical values, technology, and literary studies. Your presence will greatly enrich our discussions and help advance the field of Ethical Literacy Criticism as it navigates an era of rapid technological transformation.

For further details on registration, accommodations, and conference programs, please visit our official website or contact the organizing committee at IAELC 2025 website. We sincerely hope you will be able to take part in this meaningful gathering.

Sincerely,

Dean of Culture & Technology Convergence College
